More About the Gifts

The Theme Should be Studied Carefully from Every Standpoint.

Treasures Hidden and Lying Dormant that Should be Uoccovered and put into Use for the Benefit of Mankind.

Some people may think they understand all about the gifts, and I'm sure we ought to understand them better than many of us do, for Paul at 1Cor, 12:1 says, "Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant." There is something about this subject that is not readily seen on the surface or surely Paul would not have written in this way. He seems to show that one is liable to be ignorant and yet should not be.

Judging from Paul's writing then we conclude that this theme should be studied carefully from every standpoint.

The Corinthians had been lifted from a low state of idolatry into a realm of spirituals and yet they were in need of some instruction which Paul made an effort to give. In his instructions he made a dive beneath the surface and then ascended the heights and sailed above the zenith of the natural understanding of man and placed the standard in the heavenlies where it can only be reached by passing over by way of 1Cor. 2:10. "But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God."

"But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." (1Cor. 2:14.)

As Paul enters the discussion of the subject of which he did not want them to be ignorant confers special honor upon the Holy Ghost as he writes, "And that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost." This certainly gives the Holy Ghost a prominent position. And before he enters fully into the subject he gives them to understand that although the gifts may differ one from another yet they are each one given by the same Spirit.

Now after he names the gifts he takes the human body to use as an illustration.

Although the body is one body yet it is composed of many members, viz. hands, feet, eyes, ears, nose, etc. Notice he is writing specially to explain these nine gifts of the Spirit and when he has shown that every one must be recognized and have its place in the body, the church, (Col. 1:24.) he adds, "So also is Christ." The church is spoken of as the body of Christ of which He is the head (Eph. 5:23.), and as he had a perfect body when walking the shores of Galilee so before the church will be the perfect body of our Lord she must have all these nine gifts in perfect operation. Until this is the case the church has not fully developed, or in a state of deformity.

It is an absurdity for a church to claim to be God's church and ignore these nine gifts and never try to acquaint themselves with them nor seek for their demonstration. "Now concerning spiritual gifts brethren, I would not have you ignorant," sounds on down the line to us today.

Many who claim to be members of His church oppose the least manifestation of these gifts which proves that they are really against the Holy Ghost, and yet Paul declares that no man can say Jesus is Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

There is a depth here that will not be fully known without the aid of these gifts. There is much truth that is hidden and will never be revealed without the aid of these gifts. Jesus told us that when the Holy Ghost came He would guide us into all truth, but if we refuse His plan for guidance He is under no obligation to do it. It is His plan to use these gifts as a means to unfold mysteries, but if we do not receive them we, like all other generations, will live and die and still remain in ignorance concerning the hidden things that are placed within our reach if we only press into the realm where these gifts will be realized.

In the church in the wilderness the Urim and Thurium was used to obtain truth and revelation from God. Through the use of this peculiar instrument God's will was obtained. By the use of this David obtained information that made him able to escape from Saul when Saul was bent on his destruction. It was used also to obtain information from God that led David and his men to great victories over their enemies. It is not at all surprising that God would provide something better for us in these days of the Holy Ghost, so we have the better things in the bestowal of these gifts of the Spirit.

Listen, First, the Word of Wisdom, Second, the Word of Knowledge, Third, Faith, Fourth, Gifts of healing, Fifth, Working of Miracles, Sixth, Prophecy, Seventh, Discerning of Spirits, Eighth, Divers kinds of Tongues, Ninth, Interpretation of Tongues. With such an equipment of power and stratagem we will be invincible.

Without this equipment we are meeting with defeats and shipwrecks. Divisions, fanaticism, false teaching, ruin and wrecked lives of many who once had a good experience are lying in heaps by the road side. With the above artillery in action much of this would be avoided.

No wonder Paul said we should not be ignorant of these gifts. They are too useful to be ignored. This world will never be evangelized without them.

If, as many seem to think, they are of no value, why should Paul have mentioned them? And why should he have said he did not want us to remain in ignorance of them. Ah, brother, they are indispensable in this great battle we are now waging. And we dishonor the giver if we remain sluggish and lethargic toward them as if we did not appreciate them or the giver either.

Paul surely had in mind that people would become unappreciative and negligent about these gifts and their use for hear him as he says, "But covet earnestly the best gifts." (1Cor. 12:31.)

The word "Covet" means, "Excessive desire." "Earnestly" means, "In serious reality, Zealous, Eager." This also teaches us that these gifts are not easily obtained, although they are gifts. It means earnest hard work to reach them. This is the main reason they are so little demonstrated. It costs an effort to get them. It is easier to pass over them into what people understand is the more excellent way. (1Cor. 12:31.)

But they are still in ignorance of the gifts and pass on into deception for they think the next chapter shows the "more excellent way" when they are in such a state of ignorance that they don't understand what Paul is trying to teach them and will never know if they remain in ignorance of the gifts.

After Paul gives a little lesson on love he again makes mention of the need of the gifts. "Follow after love; yet desire earnestly spiritual gifts." (1Cor. 14:1, R. V.)

This does not look like love is the "more excellent way" and is to take the place of the gifts. Yes, it is all right to follow after love, but still press on into the realm where the gifts will be manifested. When the gifts are manifested and by the use of them the breaches healed up and perfect unity restored until, "The multitude of them that believe are of one heart and of one soul and great grace upon all, then will be revealed the "More excellent way."

Because of a lack of push and energy in throwing off ignorance concerning spiritual gifts, by giving our attention to the study of them, and lazying along and not coveting earnestly until they are fully realized, treasures are hidden and lying dormant that should be uncovered and put into use for the benefit of mankind. "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!" (Rom. 11:33.)

"Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God." (1Cor. 2:9,10.) But the gifts are offered by the Spirit as a means by which some things will be revealed that otherwise will never be known. They are for us. We must have them Pray! Pray! Pray!

ONEONTA, ALA.

Dear Evangel,

Please find space for a word of praise to our God. I am so glad I am one of them. I have the fire burning in my heart and a real determination to go through.

I am really burdened about the lost world. I am getting uneasy about my neighbors. I don't want God to hold me responsible for the multitudes who are going to hell around me. I mean to do my best while time and opportunity lasts.

Pray for us here. I want some one of God's REAL Spirit-filled servants, who feels so led, to write me about a meeting here real soon.

My home is open to the right parties.

Yours humbly and prayerfully,
Mrs. Mary Howell.

CANTON, GA.

Dear Evangel:

I'm so glad the light of the full gospel was preached at Toonigh, and God opened my eyes, praise His dear name. I am just a poor girl with no father or mother or any home, but praise God I'm looking forward to that home that Jesus said he was going to prepare.

We have a little band at Toonigh, Ga. The Devil is doing all he can to destroy it praise God some are going through.

Boys and girls, let us keep pressing on and hold up the banner so that people can see Jesus in our every day lives.

I want to get so close to God I can do some little something for Him—he has done so much for me.

Pray for me.

Yours under the blood,
Genia Wiley.

Dear Evangel Family:

I am praising God for sending Bro. Buckalew to preach the Word so it found its way to my heart. I went down before God and he saved, sanctified and filled me with the Holy Ghost according to Acts 2:4, and he still abides praise his name.

I praise Him for the little Church he planted here, and he is wonderfully blessing it and adds to it daily such as should be saved. Acts 2:47.

We organized a Sunday school three weeks ago. We have 85 members. Cottage prayer meeting Wednesday nights and preaching Sat. nights and Sunday.

We ask the prayers of all the Saints for our little church and for the hungry seekers.

Dear Evangel Family:

Oh for a thousand tongues to praise God. He has given me a happy home. My husband received the Holy Ghost in our little prayer meeting the first day of April, and he is still praising God.

Bro. Ed. Simmons preached five nights for us last week. We have organized Sunday School. We have no church house yet but we are trusting God to give us one. Glory to his name! I feel in my soul that the Lord is going to do great things for us. We are having meeting from house to house.

Jesus said, Take my yoke upon you and learn of me for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest into your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light,

Dear Evangel:

Some time back I wrote to the paper asking for prayer for the healing of a cough. I was perfectly healed, I know I was, but the devil has touched my body again with the same affliction. Pray for me. I know that Jesus can and will heal me.

Gertrude Douglass.

Dear Evangel Family,

I am so glad this morning that I am still on victory's side. I have been cold and felt that I was on the back ground for the last five months.

I am so glad that when Father spoke and said "my child come closer," I heeded His dear voice.

Oh what a good meeting we had Sunday, how the power fell! It made our hearts rejoice to see some of the dear ones getting closer to the Lord.

We have Sunday School every Sunday, and sister's prayer meeting every Tuesday at 2 P. M. from house to house.

I ask all the dear ones who know the worth of prayer to pray for me to stand true till Jesus comes.

Mrs. A. L. Douglass.

To the Saints and faithful brethren in Christ:—

My soul is delighted with Jesus and his heavenly love and power. He is so precious to me. Thank God, the government must be on His shoulders. He is doing great things for His people in these last days. Amen. Glory.

I am just back from Gordo, Buhl and Tuscaloosa. I set the church in order at or near Gordo with ten members. Left them Saturday for Buhl, Ala. Had a wonderful time there. Five received the Holy Ghost for we heard them speak in tongues.

Ten came forward and joined the church. I baptized eleven in water, and oh how the saints did shout as we came out of the water.

Went from there to Tuscaloosa, Ala. Had a good meeting there.

Let us work hard and fast while the tide is high. Amen.

"Come Ye Blessed."

One of God's faithful children, Mrs. P. F. Fritz, passed away to the home above Apr. 29. She received the baptism 1908, was received into the Church of God at Valdosta, Ga. and given Evangelist's license to preach. She accepted the Lord as her physician over five years ago, and though a great sufferer and near death at times never wavered in her determination to trust Him with soul and body.

Nearly a year ago she and her husband returned to their old Pennsylvania home where she died.

She passed away very peacefully calling on her Redeemer. As she had so requested Bro. Fritz preached her funeral, as no pentecostal preacher was to be had there.

BRADENTOWN, FLA.

Dear Saints,

I feel so glad that I can testify to God's full saving power. Jan. 27 I received the Comforter and Jan. 29 He took his abode with my companion. We are happy and confident as he gave us the Bible evidence. I also want to testify to His great healing power in our home.

We have a live church here with 30 members full of the Holy Ghost, and God is wonderfully blessing us as is manifested clearly at every meeting. Souls are being saved, sanctified and baptised.

Several are seeking and several candidates for water baptism and church Membership.

We have a good live Sunday school. We want the prayers of all saints that we may ever be true and that we may soon be able to build our church which we pray will be a beacon light to lost souls.

Missionary Facts.

— Selected by —

Sam C. Perry, Gainesville, Ga.

There are 130,000 people to one Missionary in China.

Who will help to carry the gospel to China?

“The Church, instead of the Chinese, is now behind time in China.” How true it is that all around the world the gospel messengers are behind. Let us awake and put on our beautiful garments and go into all the world with the gospel message, for the glory of the Lord which shall make His Church glorious to all the ends of the earth, is rising upon us.

“What if your own were Starving,
Fainting with famine pain;
Would you hear their wail
as a thrice told tale,
And turn to your feast again?”

South America has an area of more than seven and a half million square miles, with an estimated population of forty seven millions. Room for thousands of workers.

In Syria and Palestine, where the Savior walked and talked among men and christianity was born, the Moslems are said to compose 72 per cent of the population.

“WANTED, Men—not sentimentalists, but men of devout spirit—harmless as doves, but wise as serpents—men on whom is found the Spirit of Wisdom and a sound mind in the service of the Church, making it effectual for promoting the Kingdom of heaven.”

Apply to the Lord of the harvest who is making up His jewels from all parts of the earth. He desires men to establish, for Him, recruiting stations in every nation, language and tribe of people on earth.

It may be truly said of the heathen, “God is not in all their thoughts,” “their religion, a fear of evil spirits, constantly fills them with terrible forebodings.” How our hearts should go out for them in their awful condition. They need the light of the gospel, which would shine into their hearts and lives the knowledge and love of the true God. There is no happiness, here or hereafter, without His knowledge.

Venezuela has a population of about three million souls, more than fifty percent of whom are said to be of illegitimate birth. They have six Missionaries who tell them of the gospel of Jesus to save. What a needy field!

Tripoli, which has lately fallen into the hands of Italy, has an area of 400,000 square miles with a population of one million souls, and the only missionary work there is carried on by four missionaries. Some room there for workers who have the “go ye” in their souls.

Argentina is not to be considered as strictly Catholic, for there is a widespread estrangement from, and disgust for the Romish Church. It is said that there are hundreds of towns without a messenger to tell the story of Jesus and His love.

Honduras has a population of 745,000. Over 300,000 of them are Indians, who are partly civilized, but wholly destitute of the gospel. What a field for Spirit filled workers, called of God to go “into all the world.”

“The Hindu has the bold example of a sinful god, and the immoral teachings of his sacred books to follow, while the Christian has a righteous God and a sacred book demanding holiness as his guide to life.” How many professed followers of God are in conduct vile as the Hindu. If you are not going to obey the true gospel of God it were better if you did not have it.

We are commissioned, not only privileged, but COMMANDED to carry the gospel into all the world, our community, our county, the next county, the next state, the next nation, all nations. To what extent are you obeying this command?

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few. Matt. 9:37.

UNPROFITABLE SERVANTS.

Luke 17 1-10.

May 24.

Motto Text— He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 1Cor. 1: 31.

Central Truth— We should honor God, not ourselves.

What did Jesus say was sure to come to the christian?

He tells us that offences are sure to come. V. 1.

What of the one that brings offences. (or causes to stumble?)

It is "Woe" to that one, and better that he be cast in the sea. V. 2, 3.

What other admonition does He give to the christian?

"Take heed to yourselves."

Why should we give so much heed to our own life?

That we don't fall when some one brings an offence. V. 3.

If one trespass against us, what shall we do?

Love him, and tell him what he has done, if he repents forgive him.

How often forgive him?

He says "seven times," in another place He said "seventy times seven."

On hearing all this, what did the disciples see they needed?

They said "Lord increase our faith."

To what did Jesus liken real faith?
To a grain of mustard seed.

What did He say real faith could do?

Remove trees, and even mountains, mentioned at another time.

What happens to many on receiving great faith?

Many are lifted up to spiritual pride.

What parable did he give, warning on this line?

Parable of a servant serving his master.

Why was that servant to serve, not expecting thanks for it?

By mutual agreement for future reward, it was his duty to serve.

After doing all He commands us, what are we then to realize about ourselves?

That we have done that which was our duty and yet we are only unprofitable servants. V. 10.

—PRACTICAL THOUGHTS.—

WARNING AND ADMONITION
1—4. Paul tells us, "That he that despiseth, despiseth not man but God who has given us His Holy Spirit." The devil is enraged against God, and he is trying to destroy God's Kingdom by working through wicked men to bring offences (or occasions of stumbling) to every child of God. Some times offences will come within our own ranks; for instance, one will get cold and indifferent, it is not very hard for the devil to get that one to tell, or repeat something hard on some humble child of God, perhaps it is a young christian, not having experience on that line as older ones have, they let loose and go to the bottom again; so Jesus says "take heed to yourselves."

ENCOURAGEMENT 5—6. On seeing what it was going to take to stand, it seems as though the disciples felt a little discouraged and cried out "Lord increase our faith."

Faith brings every thing. It brings salvation, it brings grace to stand, See Rom. 5:1. But Jesus gives them to understand that they can have a mustard seed faith, ever getting stronger and increasing. It is encouraging to know that we can get closer and closer to Jesus, and enjoy such sweet relationship with Him.

But let us as v. 7—10 warns us be very careful when mustard seed faith begins to grow that we don't get lifted up in spiritual pride.

To the saints scattered abroad.

Greetings in Jesus dear name.

I write this that your joy might be full. Glory to God. I just want to tell of his goodness, and love and how he blesses us down here. We had a wonderful meeting at Chokoloskee, last Sunday all the saints had been spending a good deal of time in prayer during the week, so of course every one was feeling good; we had good meetings morning and evening and Sunday night the power fell in a way I never witnessed before, I never saw such leaping, dancing, laughing and shouting — talking and singing in tongues. If a hundred and twenty saints had been there it would have been like the day of Pentecost. Pray for us.

CHARLESTON, MISS.

Dear Evangel Family:—

I happen to the misfortune of being blind and I attend the Institute at Jackson, Miss. five seasons and in January I lost my speech and I stayed at school till the first of March and I thought I was'n't going to talk any more and I came home and took medicine from the doctor two weeks and it didn't do any good.

I layed down medicine and went to Bro. Will O'Leary to pray, also asked the Scientists to pray for me. I got up and went to playing the organ and singing and talking ever since. I write this for the glory of God. Please every one that reads this pray that I may receive my sight, get saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost.

I am a little girl 12 yrs. old.

Yours truly,

Virdya Webb.

Following Jesus.

I beseech you therefore brethren by the mercies of God that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God which is your reasonable service. Rom. 12:1. That does not mean for us to live one day for Jesus and the next for the devil. It means all the time, following his footsteps all the way, bearing the cross through trials, temptations and afflictions.

Almost any one can follow Jesus as long as they are in good health, have plenty of friends, plenty to eat, and when there is no fighting to do; but when the enemy is in view, that is the time for us to stand steadfast and unmoveable.

Though troubled on every side yet not distressed, we are perplexed but not in despair, persecuted but not forsaken. Cast down but not destroyed, always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

Sometimes it seems temptations will almost overwhelm us, but we hear that sweet voice "Follow me." Oh how sweet to feel the nearness of Jesus, to know his grace is sufficient, that he will never leave nor forsake.

If we would follow Jesus we must have love one for another, for God is love and we know we have passed from death unto life because we love the brethren.

This is a meek and lowly way. If Jesus was here on earth would he wear jewelry or costly raiment, or chew tobacco or dip snuff? Oh brothers, sisters let's lift the banner high, lift up Jesus to a dying world.

We must lead pure clean lives before the world if we expect men and women to be drawn to Him.
